To The Ladies.

To The Ladies.

When are very happy to inform the Ladies that the building below us, on the cornear of 7th street, is about being completed, and we are now in a great measure rid of the lumber and rubbish, which has been a great nulsance to all peasure by for the last three or four meanths, and all persons in want of cheap coop goods will find it greatly to their advantage to call on us before making their purchases. We have now on hand, we think, one of the best retails tock of goods in the country; and, as we keep a guneral stock of Housekeeping and Dress Goods, we are repared to offer goods of every description at the lowest prices. Our stock of Dress Goods comprises every thing that is new and destrable, and we have no heritation in saying that we have many styles of printed Measselines and Chaimarre, of very fine quality, that cannot be duplicated in price by any house in the District. We also have superior high lustre and soft finish black Groot & Rhines, in all the various widths and qualities, which we will offer cheap for the money or to very punctual customers; magnine hise Poult de Sole; and in fact almost all the very desirable colors of plain fills in use. We have one piece atraw, one piece lavender, one piece cherry, color, and one piece of pumpkin color Poult de Sole for evening dresses and vests.

In addition to the above, we have a fully supply of Cassimeres, Tweeds, Cassinets, and cheap Cloths, suitable for boys' wear; also, a splendid stock of Blankets of every description, which we will offer at very low prices.

We respectfully solicit a cail from ell in search of good goods, and we promise to deal fairly with all who may favor us with their custom.

We have a sign and the search of good goods, and we promise to deal fairly with all who may favor us with their custom.

partly wood engravings, all executed in the very best manmer.

"A better Harmony, on a better plan than this of Mr.
Strong's dies not exist. He has availed himself of all the good things in former works of its class, without rervilely copyling any. His plan combines the exhibition of each do-pel in separate columns, with that of making a text from portions of all; and it is executed with unsurparsed ingenuity. His exposition or peraphrase—if paraphrase it can be exilted—gives the sense of the Greek text in a clear, free, simple style, while his notes are critical, explanatory, and conclese. It also contains much important matter in three appendizes. To the minister this book is almost indispensable; and its use at family prayers would tend to throw a great amount of interest around the services of the domestic altar "—Zion's Headl.
